

Grey wolf

The Grey Wolf is part of the canine family.
It is a mammal, which means it can give birth.
They hunt in packs and can grow up to 55kg.
They run really fast and can run for long periods of time.
Wolves chase their prey until they get tired of running.
They are carnivores.
They kill their prey by biting its neck.

